 - 2.1.1 the Company is capable at all times of carrying on business independently of Toro and its Associates and without any partial influence in favour of Toro;
 - 2.1.2 no variations are made to the Articles which will fetter the Company's ability to carry out its business independently of Toro and its Associates;

3. Information

- 3.1 Toro agrees that it will provide such information relating to itself as the Company and First Sentinel reasonably request in order to allow the Company to comply with its obligations under the AQSE Rules, the Disclosure Guidance and Transparency Rules, the Market Abuse Regulation, or any other reporting obligations to any governmental, taxation, regulatory or licensing authority in any jurisdiction and that such information may be disclosed by the Company pursuant to such obligation.
- 3.2 Toro consents to the disclosure by the Company and First Sentinel of any information relating to this agreement or compliance by the parties with its terms as may be required to enable the Company to comply with its obligations under the AQSE Rules or any other applicable legislation and relevant market practice in the UK or any other relevant jurisdiction(s).

4. Confidentiality

Toro undertakes with the Company and First Sentinel that it will not during the term of this agreement or at any time after its termination, use (except as required or permitted by this agreement) or divulge or communicate to any person any of the secrets or other confidential information relating to the affairs or business of the Company which it may receive from the Company but so that this restriction will cease to apply to information which may become public knowledge otherwise than by Toro's breach of this agreement.

5. Overriding obligations

The obligations of the Company and Toro pursuant to this agreement will at all times be subject to the requirements of the Articles and all relevant legal and regulatory requirements and obligations of the parties in the United Kingdom and elsewhere.

6. Duration and termination

6.1 This agreement will commence on the admission of the Shares to trading on the Access Segment of the AQSE Growth Market.

6.2 This agreement will terminate in respect of Toro and cease to apply to Toro upon Toro and its Associates ceasing to hold, directly or indirectly, in aggregate more than twenty-percent (20%) of the Voting Rights.

6.3 Termination of this agreement will be without prejudice to the rights of the parties which have arisen prior to termination, including (without limitation) any claim in respect of a breach of this agreement.

7. Capacity

Toro warrants and represents to the Company and First Sentinel that:

7.1 it has the power and authority to enter into this agreement and all requisite action has been taken by it to make this agreement valid and binding upon it; and

7.2 this agreement constitutes valid and legally binding obligations on it and the entry into and performance by it of its obligations under this agreement will not:

7.2.1 violate any laws, orders or regulations to which it is subject; or

7.2.2 conflict with, or result in a breach of, any provision of any document by which it may be bound or affected or any official clearance, approval or consent which it may have obtained.

8. Assignment

Toro may not assign this agreement or any of its respective rights and obligations under this agreement without the prior written consent of the Company and First Sentinel.

9. Variation

A variation of this agreement is valid only if it is writing and signed by or on behalf of all parties.

10. Waiver

10.1 The rights of any party in respect of a breach of this agreement shall not be affected by any party failing to exercise, or delaying in exercising, a right or remedy or by anything else except a specific authorised written waiver or release. A single or partial exercise of a right or remedy provided by this agreement by law does not prevent its further exercise or the exercise of another right or remedy.

10.2 Waiver of a breach of a term of this agreement or of a default under it does not constitute a waiver of another breach or default or affect the other terms of this agreement.

10.3 The rights and remedies provided in this agreement are cumulative and not exclusive of any other rights or remedies.

11. Invalidity

If a provision of this agreement is held to be illegal or unenforceable, in whole or in part, under an enactment or rule of law, it shall to that extent be deemed not to form part of this agreement and the enforceability of the remainder of this agreement shall not be affected.

The parties agree to negotiate in good faith to agree the terms for a mutually satisfactory provision to be substituted for the provision found to be illegal or unenforceable.

12. General

- 12.1 This agreement is not intended to, nor shall it create, any rights, claims or benefits enforceable by any person not a party to it. A person who is not a party to this agreement may not enforce, or otherwise have the benefit of, any provision of this agreement under the Contracts (Rights of Third Parties) Act 1999.
- 12.2 In the event of any conflict between the provisions of this agreement and the Articles, the provisions of this agreement will prevail as between the parties. The parties will exercise all voting and other rights and powers available to them so as to give effect to the provisions of this agreement.
- 12.3 This agreement sets out the entire agreement between the parties. It supersedes any previous agreement between them in relation to the subject matter of this agreement.
- 12.4 Without prejudice to any other rights or remedies, the parties acknowledge and agree that damages alone may not be an adequate remedy for any breach of the terms of this agreement. The parties shall be entitled to the remedies of injunction, specific performance or other equitable relief for any threatened or actual breach of the terms of this agreement.

13. Notices

- 13.1 Any notice or other communication given under this agreement must be in writing (which for the purposes of this clause 13 includes email) and delivered personally, sent by first class post, or transmitted by email to the relevant party's secretary at its registered office or to such other address or email address as either party may have last notified to the other with reference to this clause. A confirmatory copy of any notice transmitted by email must also be delivered or sent by first class post to the relevant party.
- 13.2 Any notice or other communication is deemed to have been duly given on the day it is delivered personally, or on the second Business Day following the date it was sent by post, or on the next Business Day following transmission by email.

14. Counterparts

- 14.1 This agreement may be executed in a number of counterparts and by the parties on different counterparts but shall not be effective until each party has executed at least one counterpart.
- 14.2 Each counterpart, when executed, shall be an original but all the counterparts together constitute the same document.

15. Governing law

This agreement and any non-contractual obligations arising out of or in connection with it will be governed by and construed in accordance with English law and the parties submit to the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
